Celebrate with us a "Night of a Thousand Dinners"
to Help Ban and Clear Landmines.

Potluck Dinner
Friday, November 30th
7:00 p.m.

At the Home of Susan and Joshua Moore
18 Swenson Place
Anytown, NY 05432

Antipersonnel landmines maim and kill upwards of 18,000 people each year.
Most victims are civilians who live in poor countries with very limited access to medical care and prosthetic limbs.
Afghanistan is one of the most gravely mine-affected countries in the world, where Afghan refugees and U.S. soldiers are now at risk.
Most of the world's countries have joined the 1997 Mine Ban Treaty. The U.S. has not.
Come learn about this global problem and what you can do to help, politically and financially, to ban and clear landmines.

The "Night of a Thousand Dinners" Initiative is being organized by the United Nations Association's Adopt a Minefield Program, together with other partner groups, such as the U.S. Campaign to Ban Landmines.
The idea is to raise funds, awareness, and action on the landmines issue.
Come to this local event knowing that thousands of others, such as Paul McCartney and Colin Powell, will be going to similar events around this time throughout the world!

Hosts Include:
Susan and Joshua Moore
Rev. Thomas Williams
Mohammed and Kamat Abdar
Rachael Bloomberg
